

Privacy Policy

Milk Bar Studios has produced the Transfer Window app as an Ad Supported app. This service is provided by Milk Bar Studios at no cost but with the option for additional content via an annual subscription and is intended for use as is.

This policy is intended to inform app users regarding our policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if anyone decided to use the app.

By using the app you agree to the collection and use of information as set out in this Privacy Policy. The information that we collect is used for providing and improving the service only. We will not use or share this information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy.

Information Collection and Use

For a better experience, while using the app we will collect a unique device token. This token does not contain any PERSONAL IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION. The information that we request will be retained by us and used for the purpose of user notifications via the app.

We also use third party services such as Google Mobile Ads that may collect information used to identify you. Milk Bar Studios does not hold this information or have access to it.

Log Data

In the case of an error in the app we collect data and information (using Flurry Analytics) on your phone called Log Data. This Log Data may include information such as your device name, operating system version, the configuration of the app when utilizing our Service, the time and date of your use of the Service, and other usage statistics.

Cookies

Cookies are files with a small amount of data that are commonly used as anonymous unique identifiers. These are sent to your browser from the websites that you visit and are stored on your device's internal memory.

Transfer Window does not use cookies however, content shown may be viewed outside of the app in third party websites that use cookies to collect information and improve their services. You have the option to either accept or refuse these cookies and know when a cookie is being sent to your device. If you choose to refuse these cookies, you may not be able to use some features of the app.

Service Providers

We may employ third-party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate our Service;
- To provide the Service on our behalf;
- To perform Service-related task; or
- To assist us in analysing how the app is used.

We want to inform users that third parties will only have access to data we collect as outlined in this Privacy Policy for the purposes of performing the tasks assigned to them on our behalf.

Security

We do not take or hold any personal identifiable information. We take security very seriously and all data we do hold is held on secure servers, we strive to use all commercially acceptable means of protecting it. No method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable so we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Links to Other Sites

The app contains news items and tweets with links to other sites. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that site. Note that these external sites are not operated by us. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services.
